

ENDLESS SUMMER WITH SCUBAVENTURES FUNJUNKIES!

We're getting closer to a line up of Funjunkies vacations for the fall of 2010 and winter of 2011. Remember last winter...how stinking cold it was? If we have another winter like that, we're gonna need some beach time. So start making some plans to go diving with us on any or all of the following vacations.

YAP AND PALAU – October 26 – November 11, 2010.

We have one room available for someone to join our group on the 7 liveaboard in Palau and 5 days at the Manta Ray Bay Resort in Yap. We still have a couple rooms for the resort based vacation in Palau, also with 5 days in Yap. And one single lady willing to share a room on this trip if anybody out there is solo and looking for a roommate and dive buddy.

It's MY Party on St. George's Caye, Belize. Away from the chaotic tourist crowded Ambergris Caye, St. George's is quiet, laid back and private. Only one resort on the island and we've reserved all 12 rooms. I have 1 still available if anybody wants to come along to help me celebrate turning older than I've ever been before.

We have a great discount since I booked the whole resort.

Everybody loves the March trip and traveling just does not get any easier than a trip to Cozumel. We can fly from Grand Junction and be there by mid day, dive all week right up to the day before we have to go home. The package includes everything...flight, hotel, taxes, meals, drinks, insurance, transfers, and diving for 6 days for just $1810 per person. This is a $400 discount off the normal fare, good only until July 29. Call this week to reserve your space for March 12 – 19, 2011
